ALLIANCE FOR GLOBAL JUSTICE

2017 DELEGATIONS

Honduras

Honduras Through the Eyes of its Youth & LGBTQ

May 19-29

Youthful activists of any age will get a lot out of this delegation to learn about post-coup Honduras in the voices of youth, student and the queer community, both of which are targeted by the repressive regime. $950

Venezuela

Colombia

Colombia/Venezuela Compare & Contrast

June 30-July 10

This unique delegation to the Colombian state of Guajira and the Venezuelan state of Zulia, both on the Caribbean, will enable us to talk to organizations and individuals who are far from their political capitals about the challenges and accomplishments in both countries. $1,400

Paraguay

Paraguay: Land of Inequality & Food Security

Aug 4-14

Little-known to US solidarity activists & Latin Americanists, Paraguay has the most unequal land distribution in the hemisphere and its agro-export model leaves little land to grow food for its own people. Learn with AfGJ about struggles by popular organizations for economic equality & food sovereignty. $1400

Bolivia

Peru

Eco-Solidarity in the Andes: Peru and Bolivia

Oct 20-30

Meet with environmentalists and workers confronting Climate Change and extractive industries together. Melting glaciers and exploitive industries have created new collaborations between movements as we all fight for survival. $1,400
