

Interested in organizing a workshop for the Tear Down the Walls National Gathering?

Please fill out the details below and email to fiscalsponsorship@afgj.org.

Thousands of activists like you, grassroots organizations, fiscally sponsored projects of AfGJ, and peace and justice coalitions will come together to in Tucson, AZ on November 1-3. AfGJ's 60+ fiscally sponsored projects represent several separate, but overlapping, movements including the anti-war movement, the Occupy and economic justice movements, the immigrant and Palestinian rights movements, prison and police brutality and more.

TDTW Workshop Committee calls for workshop proposals for the National Gathering focusing on Tearing Down Walls--walls that divide movement, prison walls, border walls, Wall Street, WAL-mart, the Pentagon militarism walls, the walls of oppression by race, gender, ethnicity, personal identity – the list could go on! What walls do you want to tear down?

A member of the TDTW Workshop Committee will follow up with you to answer any questions you may have and to share additional information about this process. Thank you!

In Solidarity,

TDTW National Gathering Workshop Committee

Note: Fiscally sponsored projects of AfGJ are guaranteed a free workshop. There will be a nominal fee for all other workshop organizers to help pay for the space and technical equipment.
