COLLECTIVE HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATION(S) DOCUMENTATION FORM

How to use this form: this form is intended to be used for documenting collective human rights violations, i.e. violations perpetrated against a group, community or other collective. This form may be submitted virtually to our human rights violations database (afgj.org/hrs/database) at afgj.org/hrs/repository or printed and completed for your own purposes (i.e. filing an official complaint or documenting factual information for a legal proceeding). Please use the questions and examples provided below as a template for completing this report. If you're mobilizing in response to this human rights violation, you can document a call to action at afgj.org/hrs/repository/document-calls-to-action. If you have any questions or concerns, please email humanrightsreports@afgj.org.

REPORT OVERVIEW
What is the subject of this report? Example: The local Tucson armed group, Racists Against Original People (RAOP), has armed groups surrounding Oury Park, threatening to forcibly shut down a ceremony to rename the former-Oury Park.
Please provide a brief (1-3 sentences) overview of the situation. Example: Apaches for Historical Truth were holding a ceremony to rename the former Oury Park after a successful struggle to change the name. The Park was originally named after William Oury, who organized a raid in 1870 that killed over 100 mostly women, children, and elderly Apache persons as they woke from their sleep, while most of the men were away hunting. RAOP has turned out around 30 of its members, heavily armed, who are saying that if the renaming ceremony is not immediately ceased, they will shut it down by force.
