

Dear Mr. Alex Saab,

I want to thank you for sharing with me your meaningful, strong and beautiful words full of courage and hope. I also want to thank you for the help that you have given to Venezuela.

I admire your decision for falling in love with the Bolivarian Revolution led by the eternal commander Hugo Chavez Frias and by President Maduro, whom I respect profoundly and feel indebted to him for all the support he gave us during our imprisonment and after we were released from prison.

I hope that your release from prison comes soon. Although you may not know this, in Puerto Rico many Puerto Rican who love freedom and justice want as much to see you free in your homeland with your beloved family.

From my heart I'm sending you revolutionary embraces, lots of hope and the love that you deserve.

En Resistencia + Lucha,
